GOVERNOR MARTIN ASSERTS THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY MUST RID ITSELF OF ALL COMMUNISTIC TAINTS

"There Must Be A Prompt Cleaning Out of Communists
from Every Important Place in Government," Says Republican U. S. Senatorial Nominee.

ALTOONA, Oct. 29.—(INS)—Gov. Edward Martin has asserted that the Democratic Party "is to remain the great American party as of old, it must rid itself immediately of all 'communist taints.'"

"There must be a prompt cleaning out of the Communists from every important place in government," the Republican U. S. Senatorial nominee told a political rally at Altoona last night.

"They must also be cleared out of labor unions, educational institutions and other organizations of America," the governor said.

"The time has come to return the government of the United States to the people," Governor Martin said. "If it is not done now, it will never be done."

Governor Martin called for an end to deficit financing, a curb on bureaucracy, "government of laws and not of men," end of inflation, elimination of government controls, reduced taxes, accelerated production, open foreign relations, and a government "managed by those who believe in America."

Governor Martin spoke as follows:

"Our opponents say there is no danger of Communism in America. As to these dangers, let us take the testimony of men who should know."

Honorable Tom Clark, Attorney General of the United States, in a speech before the Chicago Bar Association on June 21, 1946, said:

"One of the greatest dangers, in my opinion, to civil liberties of our fellow-citizens, and one which should be taken literally by all members of our profession, is the method of Communism and Fascism to shackle democracy by indirect means."

As chief law officer of the United States, Attorney General Clark saw these dangers. Describing some of the methods used to undermine the United States by these vicious radicals, he continued:

"We know that in the Black Bible of their faith, they seek to capture the important offices in the labor unions, to create strikes and dissensions and to raise barriers to the efforts of lawful authorities to maintain civil peace."

I have recently called attention to the speech of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F. B. I., before the American Legion. I want to give you another quotation from the speech of that great non-partisan American who said:

FIREMEN TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Bristol Consolidated Fire Department tonight in the assembly room of the Municipal Building at eight o'clock.

ROGGE IS FIRED

The Rogge case clearly shows the remarkably low level to which public decency and governmental morale has sunk at Washington under the touch of "the Missouri gang."

It is a case of "gag-rule," of censorship and dictatorship which the American public cannot afford to overlook.

"Free government" will be as dead as the dodo if the forces of the national Administration are to be used, not to punish wrong doing, but to shield political friends of the New Deal from discovery and retribution.

The next Congress will have a job on its hands. Every effort ought to be made to get at the bottom of this affair.

There are three highly important questions:

A. Why was the Department of Justice trying to "sit on" information to which the American public was clearly entitled?

B. Did President Truman use this pretext to punish another individual for having helped send to prison the President's close friend and political mentor, "Boss" Pendergast?

C. Did Senator Guffey, Democratic candidate for re-election in Pennsylvania, have a finger in getting Rogge fired because the latter embarrassed him in a public address?

The reason given for firing O. John Rogge, Special Assistant Attorney General, was that in the course of a speech at Swarthmore he made public information he was under orders to suppress.

This explanation is unsatisfactory for three reasons: The first and least important is that Rogge and his superiors sharply differ with regard to what the orders were.

Second, orders of this type in Washington have been so disregarded in the past that it may be fairly said they are enforced only when other reasons enter the picture. Cabinet officers, and other officials, high and low, have been trading on "confidential" information for years.

PANTS, MONEY STOLEN AS A MAN SLUMBERS

Former Employee, Ex-Convict, Admits Robbing Jesse Lederer, Kintnersville

COMMITTED TO PRISON

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 29.—A Kintnersville roadside market owner lost his pants on the morning of September 8, and with them, a bankroll of $180 and a watch.

Jesse Lederer, 58, told State Police at the Doylestown sub-station that he was robbed while he slept in the rear of his "Willow Market" on the Lackawanna Trail at Kintnersville. Lederer reported to the troopers that the thief stole his "pants and all."

A checkup of former employees of the market led to the questioning of Charles Schoenberger, 65, of Bethlehem, an ex-convict, who was picked up last Saturday and turned over to the State Police here yesterday for further questioning.

Schoenberger, who once worked for Lederer, admitted to Trooper John Mitchell that he had robbed his former boss, entering the place at 2:30 on the morning of Sept. 8 when Lederer was asleep.

Schoenberger, who served 7 to 14 years in the penitentiary on a rape charge back in 1929, told the police that he spent the money on back insurance bills and other debts. He was committed to the Bucks County Prison, without bail, by Justice of the Peace William Wrigley, at Edison, on a charge of burglary.

1 WOMAN BEATEN BY INTRUDER, AND ANOTHER JOSTLED

Colored Man Escapes From Hewitt Home in Morris-
ville With Cash, Jewels

DRAWERS RANSACKED

Mrs. Earl J. Hewitt, 45, Is Under Care of Physician
After Beating

MORRISVILLE, Oct. 29.—A colored man broke into a Hillcrest avenue residence here this morning, severely beat one woman, jostled another around, and escaped with $50 in cash, a gold watch, two diamond rings and other jewelry.

It was about four o'clock when Mrs. Earl J. Hewitt, 45, asleep in her bedroom on the first floor, was aroused by someone in her room. Awakened, she was startled to find a colored man who ordered her to "keep quiet." Mrs. Hewitt says the man told her not to scream if she wanted to live. "Where is your money?" he asked. She told him it was in a dresser nearby, but he was unable to find it after ransacking the drawers. Mrs. Hewitt then got out of bed, and the man turned on her and endeavored to force her into the basement of the house. She resisted and was terribly beaten about the face and body. She fell to the floor, screaming, and then lapsed into unconsciousness.

The screams of Mrs. Hewitt awakened two other women who were asleep on the second floor of the Hewitt house, Mrs. Rita MacDonald, 43, and her mother, Mrs. Jennie B. Gilbert. Mrs. MacDonald heard Mrs. Hewitt screaming and calling "Rita." She ran to the first floor as she says she realized from the screams that Mrs. Hewitt was in distress. As she arrived on the first floor she met the colored man, who jostled her, throwing her back onto a davenport while he frantically tried to unlock a front screen door.

Mrs. MacDonald says that she pounded the man on the back as he continued to try to force open the door and that he again gave her a shove back onto the davenport. The man finally broke through the screen door and escaped.

Police were called and Chief Harry Christ and Officer Elmer Wiley responded. They in turn called Chief Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo, of Bristol. Police found that entrance had been gained through a basement window after an effort had been made to pull off an outside screen of a first floor window. A box had been carried from a lawn of an adjacent house and placed beneath this window.

Mrs. Hewitt is under the care of a physician and is in bed suffering with hemorrhages. Fingerprints have been taken and police are running down every clue.

Mr. Hewitt is employed as an accountant, and due to business had to remain in Newark, N. J., overnight. The three women and one child were in the house. Mrs. Hewitt was reading and writing letters in a first floor room until three o'clock this morning.

TIME FOR REALISM

No statement of foreign policy
by Secretary of State Byrnes has more definitely articulated American public opinion that his announcement that the United States will extend no more loans to foreign countries which display an unfriendly attitude toward this country and accuse America of
"dollar imperialism."

It was entirely unnecessary for him to add that he meant Russia and the group of Eastern countries within her orbit. The phrase,
"dollar imperialism," was made in Russia and has been favored by spokesmen for Russia and her satellite states. Thus representatives of Czechoslovakia in Paris picked up the Soviet chant of "economic imperialism" and "economic enslavement of Europe" to prejudice world opinion against the United States.

Secretary Byrnes made his announcement in connection with the recent cancellation of a $90,000, 000 American credit to Czechoslovakia. It is interesting to note that while one government agency
was considering this application
for Czechoslovakia's "rehabilitation," another agency was engaged in selling on credit $50,000, 000 worth of surplus Army goods, left over from the war, to that country. Now the State Department has cancelled the credit on the latter transaction and suspended talks about the first.

It is also interesting to observe that the surplus war goods, in course of being sold to Czechoslovakia, were being resold by that country to Rumania at a profit—a typical Soviet move for the extension of Communism. But in the main the State Department was moved to cancel both credits
in protest against Soviet propaganda about "American policies of imperialism" in Eastern Europe.

Washington has been most generous to Russia, having given her priority over the Pacific theater in wartime for needed military supplies. What was done with lend-lease was later paralleled with UNRRA and to Russia and her satellite states.

Definitely, the time has come for a revision of the entire policy of extending aid to totalitarian Russia. Soviet spokesmen, by their criminal recriminations and fantastic charges, have practically been asking for it. Unless the fact is impressed upon Soviet Russia that she cannot pervert American good will against the interests of America, it will be impossible to deal firmly with the Moscow
Reds in any way.

They have been selling magazine stories, syndicated articles, radio talks, etc., for their private profit, drawing upon secret files for their facts. Even the theft of state documents has been glossed over.

The purpose of such orders has been most clearly shown to be nothing more than to prevent outside and non-partisan investigators having access to the facts.

Third, the most important reason why the stated cause for Rogge's dismissal is unsatisfactory is that the American public was clearly entitled to have the facts which Rogge made public—and to have them now, before the coming election.

Punishment should fall, not on the man who revealed
this information, but upon those who tried to suppress it.
If "big names" were mixed up in an attempt to sell this nation out to Adolf Hitler, we ought to know it. If persons involved in the November 5 election were involved, we ought to know that also.

The statements made by the Federal officials in this matter are hypocritical, as well as evasive.

The basis of their argument is that Rogge was working for the Attorney General directly and for the President indirectly.

Since he was their employee, his duty was to follow their orders.

If he violated those orders, then he ought to be fired.
This sort of argument would be very well if it was a correct statement of the facts. But it isn't, and the moralizing overtones by which the Administration is trying to hide its censorship and its abridgement of free speech and free elections become a pious fraud.

Rogge was working for the American people. What he did was as a public servant, paid for out of the public's money, and as an agent of supposedly "free" government.

As for the Attorney General, and the President himself, they also are working for the American people—
although they do not always seem to realize it.

The only contrary theory is to assume that we have stepped outside of "popular sovereignty" and actually are living under dictatorship.

As a public servant, Rogge came into possession of information which the American people, his real boss, has a right to know about.

The fact that his immediate superiors, who after all are no more than "straw bosses" for the American electorate, decided that the information might be politically embarrassing to them, did not lessen Rogge's duty to make the information known.

In fact, it increased his obligation.
IT WAS HIS DUTY TO SPEAK. He did so, and got fired.

Except for his past connection with the Prendergast conviction, it is possible that he might have been overlooked. But the combination of this factor with the embarrassment he caused the New Deal's Pennsylvania wheelhorse, Senator Guffey, was too much.

The sordid story is merely one more reason why the American voters ought to use the coming election as an occasion for forcing a cleanup at Washington. A strong Republican majority in both houses of Congress can do this job.

Meanwhile, it might be observed that the title of the Department of "Justice" is rapidly becoming a mis-nomer.
Justice must be non-partisan and non-political—or it isn't justice.

Have the American People HAD ENOUGH of the Department of Justice being turned into an auxiliary of the National Democratic Committee?

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

Prospects and Promises

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.
A MONTH ago in a survey conducted by News-Week magazine of some 55 supposedly politically informed Washington correspondents
only one believed the Democrats would retain control of the House of Representatives as a result of the November 5 elections. All the others agreed the Republicans would take over by majorities ranging from 1 to 25.

SINCE then the expectation of Republican victory seems better
founded and its extent considerably greater. There now are to be found few Democratic politicians who believe their party will hold on to the House, while the Republicans are beginning to think they may gain the Senate, too. Certainly, usually reliable polls indicate a Republican trend much stronger than appeared before. It would be remarkable indeed if this trend did not exist.

THE reasons are clear: (1) the turn of the tide is long overdue; would have occurred six years ago but for the war; (2) the accumulation of resentments against a party in power for fourteen years is inevitably very great; (3) the incongruous groups which won for the Democrats in the last three elections, have diminished in solidarity and effectiveness; (4) they have lost a dramatic leader, and the domestic policies with which he was identified have bogged down pretty badly; (5) the epidemic of almost catastrophic strikes with which the nation has been afflicted have inflamed public sentiment against the Democratic alliance with the CIO
and its Communist support.

THESE would seem enough. Democrats argue that the President's recent decontrol of meat and move toward a free economy may reverse
this trend, but they are not too hopeful. Just as it is said of sermons that no souls are saved after the first twenty minutes, the more astute politicians insist that no votes are changed in the last month of a campaign. So as things stand today the opinion is fairly overwhelming that, for the first time since 1928 the Republicans are about to control the House of Representatives which they had previously controlled for twelve consecutive years.

IT IS significant that this prospect arouses almost no enthusiasm anywhere. Partly this is due to the poor quality of the Republican leadership; partly to the party's record
in the last session of Congress;
partly to the lack of anything like a practical and adequate legislative program for the next session.
There are, to be sure, some good men on the Republican side in both House and Senate and there are good Republicans outside of Congress who aspire for the presidency. But the truth is that as a party it does not inspire confidence either as to its capacity or its character.

NOR is this surprising. For a long time now the Republicans in Congress and in their platforms have denounced the unsoundness of the New Deal policies, but when such policies appeared to appeal particularly to the voters they have not by any means stood steadfastly against them. In the past, this has been particularly true on the vital issues of economy and labor. Now, of course, the party is turned toward the right just as the country is turned, and probably the only hope of reducing the size of the swollen Federal bureaucracy is to get the Democrats out and the Republicans in, it being infinitely easier to lop off the unnecessary job-holders when they belong to the opposite party and not your own.

BUT, under existing conditions, how can anyone have real faith in a party whose leaders just three weeks before election come forth with serious proposals to cut taxes 30 per cent? Yet this is exactly what the Republican Post War Tax Study Commission did a few days ago. Supposedly, the report of this committee is going to become a party program if the Republicans win next month. They pledge the return to a 30 per cent tax cut and at the same time pledge it to balance the Federal budget.

THE two things contradict each other. Regardless of the specious arguments now being made, if you do the one you cannot do the other.
The first makes the second ridiculously impossible. To propose both is sheer demagogic claptrap of a very low order. In face of the irre-ducible expenses of the Government, the proposal to cut taxes 30 per cent is a proposal not to repair
but to wreck the Federal financial structure more completely than it already is. It is a proposal to decrease Government revenues far faster than Government expenditures. Is it surprising that this kind of Republican conservatism commands neither respect nor belief?
Perhaps, if and when the Republicans gain power, they will also acquire a sense of responsibility and not live up to promises such as this.
It is a little odd to hope that a party will not keep its promises, but in this case, clearly, it is the only thing to do.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Courier:—

As hunting season opened Saturday, October 26th, Hultmeville was invaded by approximately 25 to 30
so-called hunters or sportsmen.
They came from near and far to slaughter 23 tame mallard ducks.

These ducks have been living along the Neshaminy Creek in Hultmeville. Residents along the creek have been feeding these ducks for years and have trained them to take food from their hands. About 200 shots were fired at these ducks.
The writer of this article picked up 38 empty shells in one spot
alone in Hultmeville battle ground.
As far as is known, there is an ordinance in Hultmeville against hunting.

Question arises "What is done to enforce this ordinance?" What are town fathers and constables doing to eliminate the vandalism? Conditions are very bad when residents cannot cross their own back yards
as the battle goes on.

This morning, Monday, October 28th, four cars of hunters parked on Hultmeville battle ground for an early start. Probably these are modern times. They are even banging away on Sunday about town when townspeople are worshipping their God in churches.

Gov. Martin Asserts That Democratic Party Must Rid Itself of All "Red" Taints

"The (Communist) propaganda, skillfully designed and adroitly executed, has been projected into practically every phase of our national life.

"The average American workingman is loyal, patriotic and law-abiding. He wants security for his family and himself. But in some unions the rank and file find themselves manipulated by a few leaders who have hoodwinked and browbeaten them into a state of submission.

"We are rapidly approaching the time when loyal Americans must be willing to stand up and be counted. The American Communist Party, despite its claims, is not truly a political party. The Communist Party in this country is not working for the general welfare of all our people—it is working against our people. It is not interested in providing for the common defense.

"It has for its purpose the shackling of America and its conversion to the Godless, Communist way of life."

Our opponents have said that Mr. Hoover's San Francisco speech did not have the approval of the President. Has the day come in America when the expressions of the head of the great F. B. I. are to be censored?

The Attorney General of the United States has warned us. The Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation has warned us. Let me remind you of another stern warning from the past. Abraham Lincoln, in his famous Cooper Union Speech, said:

"At what point then is the danger to be expected?"

"I answer, if it ever reaches us, it must spring up from among us."

"It cannot come from abroad."

"If destruction be our lot, we must ourselves be its author and finisher."

"As a nation of free men, we must live through all time, or die of suicide."

"If the time ever comes in America when a minority can frustrate the will of the majority, the result will be mobocracy on one hand or tyranny on the other."

The words of Lincoln are still true. Yes—there is danger from within. There are those who create confusion, confusion and strife. Some are in high places. Others are selfish, mean, seeking power.

What is the best way to fight this menace? We know it is here. The sentinels in the watchtowers have warned us.

It seems to me that if we are to retain our American way of life, we must immediately:

1. Stop deficit financing. A people to be free must have a solvent government.

2. Curb bureaucracy. A drastic cut must be made in our more than 2,000,000 Federal employees. They are costing the taxpayer more than $3,000,000,000 a year. This will do more than save money. It will wipe out costly confusion and uncertain regulations. The straitjacket must be removed from the body of industry so the American productive genius may have an opportunity.

3. We must again have a government of laws, and not of men. When the present philosophy of government took over in 1933, only 224 executive orders had ever been issued in the whole history of America. These orders have now reached the enormous number of nearly 10,000. This is government by decree. It is dangerous. Government at Washington must be orderly, capable, honest and efficient. It must protect, not direct. Its fumbling and uncertain domestic and foreign policies have endangered our place as a Nation.

4. We must stop inflation. It is caused by our enormous debt and our watered currency. Inflation is not caused by high wages and prices. It is caused by deficit financing. Unchecked it would destroy America. For years we have spent billions more than we received in taxes. These billions are now represented in the bonds and greenbacks you hold. Their value has been watered down. To stop the creeping paralysis and cold death of inflation, the first step is a balanced Budget—kept balanced.

5. Controls must be taken off. Industry will then go to work. The farmer will know what to do. The workman can plan for the future. Capital will go into new business. Our peacetime activity will expand. There will be goods to buy, and this will curb inflation.

6. Taxes must be reduced. If government will keep out of business and run its affairs on a businesslike basis, taxes can be cut. Every dollar paid in taxes, directly or indirectly, means inflation, because that dollar could be used in buying and producing.

7. Production must be encouraged, and not discouraged. It will make more jobs in free enterprise. It will create markets. Government can help. It must be the impartial friend of labor, agriculture and capital. At all times, it must see that the people are protected in their rights. The rights of all the people must be considered.

8. Our foreign relations must be an open book. We must know our commitments—financial, political and military. We want peace and understanding. Americans are willing to join the peace-loving nations in an agreement to enforce peace in the world. This cannot be done unless we have unity and understanding at home.

9. We have a right to know where our money has gone. This can be ascertained only by an impartial investigation and a fair audit. There are scandals. We have a right to know the guilty. The guilty should be punished.

When any man or party is opposed to an open and honest investigation, it is almost self-evident that they must have something to hide. Certainly any man with clean hands is willing, at all times, to open all his affairs when they come within the scope of the public's business.

10. Finally, we have a right to have our government managed by those who believe in America. The subversive elements who are trying to lead us down the road of Old World experiments and failures must go.

These accomplishments will help get America back on the highroad of confidence.

We know this is a critical period in the history of America.

The teachings of the ages convince us there is no neutral ground in a great crisis. We must choose between Right and Wrong. We are either for or against.

We are forced to choose between the republican form of government with all its freedoms, and the Red pattern of Socialism, wherein the freedom of the individual is lost.

We cannot get results by loud shouts, glittering platitudes and empty promises. Wars are won by sacrifice, hard work and bloodshed. Nations rise to greatness by work, sacrifice, thrift, courage and the desire to live righteously. Good and economical government is built in the same way.

The people must realize that the great shouter and the loud promoter must do all his work with their money. When he shouts for and promises some new project, he should shout just as loudly for the tax that must be levied to pay the bill. Then the people, who must pay the tax, can decide whether they can afford the cost.

Governments have gone broke because of waste, selfishness or a craving for power. No matter what title he wears, the receiver for a bankrupt nation is a dictator. Then hunger and suffering rule. Then individual liberty is lost. Then the unfortunate are without hope. Then concentration camps are crowded. Then a proud, free people will know what the loss of freedom means.

Now is the time for Americans to think. We have had our warnings. We have seen Europe ripped to bloody shreds and left a ruin. From the watchtowers, our own people have warned us. The lights of western civilization are burning low in the Old World. Now is the time to stop the drift toward Socialism, and finally to Communism. The Day of Decision is Tuesday, November 5th.

Yes, there is danger in America; but I have just as much confidence in Americans as I do in the American soldier.

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE "YES" FOR THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE ON NOVEMBER 5, 1946

The School Board of Bristol Township asks your permission to borrow one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) so that they can provide better facilities for educating your children. When you appear at the polls November 5th, you will receive a special ballot covering this issue. The School Board asks you to vote "YES."—Reasons are given below.

1. WHY DO WE NEED ADDITIONS TO OUR BUILDINGS?

Answer: 15% of our children are attending half time sessions.

12% of our children are attending classes in sub-standard buildings.

The total population in our schools during the 1941-42 term was 1,005 children, while enrollment for the 1946-47 term is 1,419; or an increase of 414 children which means that each year at least two or more class rooms are becoming over-crowded. Statistics show this increase of pupils will continue for at least the next ten years.

2. HOW WILL THE MONEY BE SPENT?

Answer: One hundred thousand dollars will be used towards the erection and construction of the elementary buildings, making these alterations or additions in such a manner that the new construction will be a permanent type building.

Fifty thousand dollars will be used toward the class room expansion of the High School Building.

If the bond issue is approved the actual construction will take place at the most opportune time to take full advantage of any decrease in cost. However, if it is at all possible to have it finished by next September it will be done.

3. HOW WILL THE COST BE MET?

Answer: Interest rates for school bonds are less than 2% which is the lowest rate ever available. If the taxpayers vote YES, bonds will be sold at this low rate of interest and paid off over a long period of time.

If the taxpayers vote NO, the Board's only other alternative will be to increase the tax rate sufficiently high enough to carry on a building program which will be far from satisfactory because of insufficient initial funds for construction.

young people, he said, need the encouragement of the older people. Brief remarks were made also by Rev. Robert Horne, pastor of the church.

Four basic fundamentals in good flying technique were listed by W. T. Piper, president of the Piper Aircraft Corporation, Lock Haven, as he addressed Quakertown Rotarians at their meeting, last week.

These fundamentals, Mr. Piper told the members, consist of a straight and level flight, the climb, the glide and the turn. "It is good," said Mr. Piper, "that your municipality has an airport because Federal and State funds will go only to this type of airport ownership. Community airports are the coming thing, and today many of them can be found throughout the United States."

Prior to giving the talk, Mr. Piper presented the safety flying emblem to C. William Freed, Jr. He also complimented the club upon having its own plane, and on the efficiency of the Quakertown Municipal Airport.

Young People Gather To Celebrate Halloween

CROYDON, Oct. 29.—A group of young people held a Halloween party at the log cabin on the grounds of the home of Miss Stephanie Holeyton. CALL THEM POP SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (INS)—If you're looking for a new name for G. I. Joe in college, don't call him Joe College, call him "Pop." That's the advice indicated by a report revealing that 17.8 per cent of the veterans at Union College are married. Of the 170 married veterans, 31 have one child, nine have two children, and most of the remainder are in the cigar market.

"OLD GLORY"

NEW YORK, N. Y. (INS)—Call our nation's flag "Old Glory" and you're guilty of an affectionate misnomer. There is only one "Old Glory," and that's a U. S. flag with 24 stars, now in a museum in Salem, Mass. It was named by a Salem Shipmaster, Captain William Driver, shortly after Missouri was admitted as the 24th state of the nation.

What's Cooking, Joe?
... BESIDES A RUPTURED DUCK?

Well, like the feller said, "All I know is what I read in the papers." And it looks plenty tough for a vet on the face of it... PLENTY tough...

But, Joe, it's not as bad as it seems! For there's a new star on the vet's horizon!

A little Giant...

Called the AVC!

This AVC—what's it like? Well...

It is not run by veterans of World War I.

It is strictly a World War II outfit.

It is not out for the veteran at the expense of the rest of the country.

It is out to get veterans the right to a decent home, a good job and a world of peace for their kids to grow up in.

It is not just a talk-up outfit—

It is the follow-through, good-done kind of organization.

Witness the
1. Veterans Housing Program
2. Terminal Leave Pay Bill
Record
3. Cars for Amputees

It is not a half-baked, stagnant, small-time concern. It is a national veterans organization which has jumped from 200 to over 75,000 members in only two years!

If you are an honorably discharged veteran of World War II (including Merchant Marine), you, too, can be an active part of this growing outfit.

This is what you've been waiting for. You can help us build a better America!

Naturally, we can't tell you our whole AVC story in this one ad. So do this, will you... clip the coupon, or make a note to get in touch with us. We'll be happy to answer all your questions about AVC... needless to say, without strings or malarkey.

AMERICAN VETERANS COMMITTEE

Although AVC is considered the most politically energetic of all veterans organizations... as well as the most progressive... there's also fun aplenty! We run lots of social affairs... and you'll meet a swell bunch of guys!

Today's Quiet Moment

By The
Rev. Bickley Burns Brodhead
Pastor
Bensalem Methodist Church

Spirit of Love, in whom we live and move and have our being, grant to us a perfect faith to cast out all fear. In quietness and confidence we turn unto Thee, for in Thee we find strength for bearing our burdens and light for seeing beyond our perplexities. Teach us to find in Thy great Love our only peril and in Thy Judgment our only hope; we would pray in the spirit of Jesus the Christ. Amen.

STRONG RIVALRY TO MARK "GRID" GAME

Langhorne High has beaten Bristol High but twice in their 17 years of grid rivalry. The teams meet Saturday on the Bristol field in a tilt which may decide the Lower Bucks County championship as all indications point to Morrisville being out of the race.

The gridiron battles between the Redskins and the Bunnies started in 1929 when the Bristol team scored a 7-6 win. They won every game until 1937 when Langhorne deadlocked the Bunnies. In 1940, Langhorne, under Coach "Charlie" Beck beat Bristol, 6-0, for Langhorne's first win. They repeated the performance in 1942.

The team scores:

Year	Bristol	Langhorne
1929	7	6
1930	12	0
1931	12	7
1932	24	0
1933	27	0
1934	6	0
1935	7	0
1936	21	0
1937	0	0
1938	20	9
1939	0	6
1940	0	6
1941	33	0
1942	0	6
1943	14	7
1944	24	0
1945	31	0

(Bristol won 14, lost 2, tied one.)

'Saints' Plan Practice Session for Tonight

St. Ann's A. A. will hold a practice session tonight in the rear of the club-house.

The Saints will play Holmesburg A. A. Sunday, on Leedom's field, which may be the Saints' last home game of the season.

St. Ann's is leading the western division of the Northeast Conference and a win over Holmesburg will assure the Bristol boys of a playoff spot. Holmesburg has lost one game, being beaten by Tacony Boys Club in the last few minutes of their game last Saturday night.
